CIGAR MENU

LIMITADOS & VINTAGES

Every year Cuba releases cigars under the Edición limitada program. Prized by collectors, they are made in limited quantities. When the program began in 2000, there were four. Other years saw as many as five, and none were released in 2002.

For many years the number was three, but since 2020 we have seen only one El released per year.

CUBA

Cuban cigars, made entirely from tobacco grown in Cuba, are globally renowned and deeply tied to the island's culture.

The filler, binder, and wrapper often come from regions like Vuelta Abajo, Semi Vuelta, and Viñales in Pinar del Río province—areas known for producing top-quality tobacco.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

The Dominican Republic is home to some of the world's finest cigars, known for their mild yet rich flavor. Dominican tobaccos are slightly milder than those from Cuba or Honduras, making them especially approachable.

With a variety to suit every palate and strength preference, the country's fertile soil and ideal climate make it perfect for growing premium tobacco.
